“HOUSE WHERE LINCOLN STAYED” PROJECT

P.A.S.T. is VERY close to having ½ of the funds needed to apply for the Illinois Tourism matching grant needed to purchase the “House Where Lincoln Stayed”! We are required to have our half of the money in hand (or signed pledges) before we can send in the application. Please call 618-833-8745 or email hileman14@frontier.com if you have any questions about donating to this project. Donations may be returned, if so desired, if the grant is not approved.

Donors of $58.00 or more (since Lincoln stayed here in 1858) will now receive a complimentary DVD of the 2008 Sesquicentennial Debate event at the park.

WELCOME TO P.A.S.T BOARD OF DIRECTORS

P.A.S.T. was so glad to have Holly Wohlwend and Linda Sadler join our board of directors last year. Earlier this year, we added Andi Laster and now we welcome Angela Boyd to our board. Angela has volunteered to be our new treasurer. Welcome Ladies!!

TABLE FABLES AND QUILT TALES

The 2010 Quilt and Tables Exhibition at C-Infinity in Cobden on April 17th was a huge success. Quilt exhibits showcased the needlework, creativity, artistry and collections of area craftsmen and women. Over 60 quilts were on display for visitors to enjoy as works of art. Guests were encouraged to complete a people’s choice ballot to help select Best of Show in four categories.

Best of Show Quilt Exhibit- Paula Cochran of Anna

Best of Show Quilt Story- John Ginalick of Edwardsville, IL

Honorable Mention Best of Show- Charlotte Clover of Anna

The tablescapes included twelve table settings that featured beautiful formal settings, whimsical and eclectic presentations, holiday arrangements, vintage collectibles, and children’s tables. The table displays related to books and had “stories” to tell.

People’s choice Best of Show Table Display- Lisa Wells of Anna

The Best of Show Table Story – Colleen Garrott of Anna
